VIII Mon. October hath xxxi days.

For Forms of Government let Fools contest,
Whate'er is best administer'd is best:
For Modes of Faith let graceless Zealots fight,
His can't be wrong, whose Life is in the right:
All must be false, that thwart this one great End,
And all of God, that bless Mankind, or mend.

IX Mon. November hath xxx days.

Fair Summer's gone, and Nature's Charms decay,
See gloomy Clouds obscure the chearful Day!
Now hung with Pearls the dropping Trees appear,
Their faded Honours scatter'd here and there.
Behold the Groves that shine with silver Frost,
Their Beauty wither'd, and their Verdure lost.
Sharp Boreas blows, and Nature feels Decay,
Time conquers all and we must must Time obey:
